CERTIFICATE IN COUNSELLING SKILLS SEPTEMBER 2024-JULY 2025

COURSE OUTLINE

The Certificate in Counselling Skills provided by Highgate Counselling Centre (HCC) provides trainees with the core skills to understand and apply the basic concepts of counselling together with the skills and knowledge required to facilitate a helping relationship. The course is open to those working in a voluntary or professional capacity or for those wishing to develop their communication skills in a variety of settings.

This is a one-year, part-time course. Face-to-face training is held on Tuesday evenings from 7pm to 10pm at North Bank, Pages Lane, London N10 1PP. Online training is held on Tuesday evenings from 7pm to 10pm and is delivered via the Zoom platform. Both courses follow the same curriculum. The course starts in September 2024 and ends in July 2025. If restrictions are imposed during the course, then some scheduled face-to-face training may need to be delivered via the Zoom platform until we are able to return to face-to-face training.

The aims and objectives of the course, an application form and information regarding selection criteria and the application process are available as downloads from our website.

Successful completion of the course leads to the award of a Certificate in Counselling Skills. Upon successful completion, you will be provided with the opportunity to train further with us and to perhaps participate in our Diploma in Psychodynamic Counselling (a BACP accredited training).

Please note this is a Certificate in Counselling Skills and is not a Certificate in Psychodynamic Skills or Psychodynamic Counselling.

Applications are now being accepted and must be submitted by 26th April 2024.

COURSE CONTENT

The course focuses on three specific areas:

- Counselling theory and concepts.
- Counselling skills practise.
- Self-awareness and personal development.

BRIEF OVERVIEW OF EACH TERM

The year is divided into 3 terms, each of 10 weeks duration:

Term 1: Basic Counselling Skills

Topics covered during Term 1 include what is counselling, how counselling differs from other forms of helping, who can be helped by counselling, communication techniques, empathy vs sympathy, responding skills, reflecting skills, paraphrasing skills, non-verbal communication, the core conditions of the person-centred model.

Term 2: Basic Human Development

Term 2 provides an introduction to basic human development, including Maslow's hierarchy of needs, Erikson's psycho-social model, Freud's psycho-sexual model and an introduction to attachment theory.

Term 3. Counselling Modalities

Term 3 provides trainees with the opportunity to explore a range of different theoretical models including psychodynamic counselling, humanistic counselling, Gestalt and CBT. This term also considers the therapeutic frame and boundaries as well as counselling supervision.

Saturday workshops/process group

Attendance at a number of Saturday also forms part of the curriculum. These workshops include (a) an overview of the BACP Ethical Framework for the Counselling Professions, (b) recognising difference and diversity, (c) acknowledging gender and sexuality, (d) intercultural counselling, and (d) an in-depth overview of psychodynamic counselling. All workshops are facilitated via the Zoom platform. In addition, trainees are required to attend 2 x 4 hour process groups during the training – these are also facilitated via the Zoom platform.

There are half-term/reading breaks each term, which are usually in line with the Haringey school timetable. An induction programme will take place before the training commences. For face-to-face training, this will be held at North Bank, Pages Lane, London N10 1PP. For the online training course, the induction will be held via Zoom.

THE PROCESS

Each evening begins with a taught element covering the theoretical elements of the topic(s) being delivered. Trainees are provided with a theoretical paper, which they are expected to read, for each evening of the training provided.

This is followed by 'personal development group' which provides an opportunity for you to interact with your peers on a personal and professional level. A range of personal development and reflective activities are provided as part of the training.

Following this, counselling skills practise is time-tabled, which provides you with the opportunity to put into practise the skills being taught. These are usually held in 'triad' format, i.e., helper, client and observer.

ASSESSMENT

Assessment is continuous throughout the course with self, peer, tutor and training manager elements. Please note the following:

- Trainees are required to complete a personal development journal on a weekly basis.
- Trainees are required to complete a written paper of 2,500 words.
- Trainees are required to submit an end of term reflective view at the end of each term and to attend an end of term tutorial with the course tutor.
- Successful completion of the course with satisfactory progress in theoretical understanding, personal development and in relating theory to personal experience will be necessary to receive the certificate. A minimum attendance of 80% is expected for each term. If you miss a session, you will be asked to complete a 1,000 word summary of the essential reading(s) presented during that evening. This summary should also include your own reflections on the paper(s) presented to demonstrate your comprehension of the concepts introduced or re-visited.

TIME COMMITMENT

Trainees need to allow 7-10 hours per week to cover the following aspects of the course. The figures provided below are a rough guideline but may differ for individual trainees.

- Tuesday evening attendance (3 hours per week)
- Saturday workshop/process group attendance (30 hours total)
- Reading and presentations (minimum 3-4 hours per week)
