

CPD WORKSHOP

Safeguarding adults and children

Saturday, 22 February 2025 - 12.45pm to 6.00pm

Quakers Meeting House, 77 Church Crescent, London N10 3NE

Workshop fee:

£65.00 HCC members | £75.00 non-HCC members

Overview:

This workshop will give participants an understanding of what safeguarding adults and children means. Through discussions and exercises, there will be opportunities to identify different types of abuse and safeguarding concerns and to know what to do about them if you see or hear them.

Workshop Outcomes:

- Provide an overview of the definition of safeguarding children and adults.
- Look at different types of abuse and safeguarding issues.
- Think about how to keep adults and children safe.
- Make sure you are keeping yourself safe.
- Consider what your role and responsibility is in relation to safeguarding.
- Become familiar with safeguarding policies.

Facilitator:

The trainer for this workshop is Jo Woolf. She has delivered safeguarding training to Local and Health authority staff, the Police and Fire departments, Local Safeguarding Children Boards, local, national and international voluntary organisations and charities and international Government. Jo trained as a Social Worker and a Psychotherapist and currently works as a freelance trainer and consultant.
