

POST-QUALIFYING CERTIFICATE IN PSYCHODYNAMIC WORK WITH COUPLES FACE-TO-FACE TRAINING COURSE

SELECTION CRITERIA AND APPLICATION PROCESS

The selection process is via application only. If the training team require further information to make a decision regards suitability they will request a meeting with the applicant.

The following selection criteria apply:

- A minimum of a level 4 diploma in psychodynamic counselling/psychotherapy (if a candidate has a level 4 counselling qualification in an orientation that is not psychodynamic, they will need to demonstrate a strong understanding and clinical experience in working psychodynamically)
- Accredited/registered with BACP, UKCP or BPC
- Applicant must currently be working clinically or have worked clinically within the last year
- Ideally applicant will have some post-qualifying clinical experience
- Applicant will be able to demonstrate in their application their interest in working with couples or working with individuals psychodynamically with the couple in mind

COURSE FEE

The fee for the course is £1,700.00. This can be paid:

- a) As a lump sum, up front, in advance of starting the training.
- b) Via a place acceptance fee of £400.00 (which secures your place on the course), followed by 9 monthly payments of £144.45 per month. Monthly payments are to be made on 18th of the month, starting in December and ending in August.

Should you choose to pay the place acceptance fee but do not start the course, you remain liable for all remaining course fees. Should you later choose to terminate your training, or HCC terminate your training, again you remain liable for all remaining course fees.
